

REFUEL STUDY: 1 PETER

FREEDOM UNDER OPPRESSION, PART 2

1 PETER 2:18-25

1. Were the “slaves” addressed in 1 Peter 2:18 the same as “slaves” addressed in Galatians 6:5?
2. Abigail, Jo Anne, and Greg: The New Testament never addresses slavery, but the Old Testament does in several ways. What are some of the ways that the Old Testament addresses slavery?
3. 2:19 says that one finds favor with God if, for the sake of conscience toward God, or because of God-consciousness, he or she bears up under unjust suffering. What is unjust suffering? Have you ever suffered unjustly?
4. how would awareness of God, or desiring to have a good conscience before God, help you bear up under unjust suffering?
5. When you read in 2:21 that Jesus is our Example or Pattern for living, what images come to your mind?
